

RACING HEARTS

Supporting the mission of the American Heart Association and the Halle Heart Children's Museum

Event Facts

- What: Join professional race car drivers Nick Firestone, Cassie Gannis, PJ Jones, David Levine, Arie Luyendyk Jr., Alan Rudolph and more for an evening of Kart Racing, pit crew competition, cocktails, dinner, and silent auction
- When: Saturday, November 2, 2013 6 p.m. – 10 p.m.
- Where: Octane Raceway
Indian Bend and 101 Freeway
- Why: Childhood obesity is considered the number one health crisis facing American youth today. Some experts believe that if obesity continues to increase, our current generation will become the first in American history to live shorter lives than their parents. When children are overweight and obese, they face a multitude of emotional and physical health concerns – all factors that lead to a lifetime of chronic ailments including heart disease. This event supports critical programs like the Halle Heart Children's Museum that fight and prevent the No. 1 and No. 4 killers in America, heart disease and stroke.
- Tickets: $200 per person
- Event Chairs: Nick Firestone and Lou Werner, III
